

I strong oppose the removal of these regulations. I oppose the further concentration of media ownership and what will become the detrimental impact on the diversity of news sources available to the American public.